

SIMS AFFIRMS DELAY BY NAVY PROLONGED CONFLICT HALF YEAR

Also Cost Half Million of Lives Admiral Tells Committee.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, March 10.—Failure of the navy department to fully cooperate in the war during the first six months after America's entry cost half a million lives, fifteen billions of dollars, 2,500,000 tons of shipping and prevented a victory over Germany by July, 1918, Rear Admiral Sims told the senate investigating committee today in presenting documentary evidence in support of his charges of delay against the department.

The officer read to the committee recommendations he had made to the department immediately upon his arrival in London in 1917. A cablegram sent late in April, 1917, said the critical area where the war would be won or lost was in the eastern Atlantic at the focus of all lines of ocean communication to England and France. Admiral Sims told the committee that although he repeatedly urged that every destroyer and small craft that could be sent to sea be dispatched immediately to this area his recommendation was not complied with until about six months later.

He also recommended, he said, that two divisions of the American dreadnaughts be sent to base on Brest to guard against raids in the English channel by German cruiser forces, but this recommendation was entirely disregarded.

Failure of the department to throw the full force of the navy into the struggle, he said, resulted in the "unnecessary loss of 1,500,000 tons of shipping by submarine attack in 1917 and 1,000,000 tons in 1918."

"If the tonnage lost in 1917 had been saved by the prompt co-operation of the navy," he said, "America could have had a million men in France at the beginning of 1918 instead of 300,000."

Admiral Sims said the German offensive of 1918 was due to the failure of the German submarine campaign and that in all probability it never would have been undertaken and the morale of the German people would have broken if the American troops had been promptly dispatched to France. He estimated on the basis of what happened when the American forces did arrive that victory could have been achieved by July, 1918, if the tonnage had been preserved.

Final Decision

The navy department's first real decision as to participation in the war Admiral Sims said, was contained in a cablegram to him 27 days after America entered the struggle. The message said the department intended to send 36 destroyers, one tender and a mother ship to the British Isles and asked for minute information regarding the possibility of obtaining necessary supplies at Berhaven, the probable base.

"All of these plans should have been worked out long before we entered the war," said Admiral Sims, "and should have been placed in effect, in substance at least, the day we entered the war."

DIXON POST TO GET RIFLES IN NEAR FUTURE

Will Be Loaned By U. S. for Use in Funeral Services.

Secretary Rae Chadwick of Dixon post, American Legion, was advised today of a plan that is being presented to posts throughout the state by which rifles are to be given to the posts to be used in conducting military funerals. The government will supply the guns and will send ammunition at cost. While the rifles will be sent to the Dixon post as a loan it is not believed the government will ever call for them.

The provisions for the issuance of the munitions are contained in the Rogers bill, recently passed by both houses of congress in compliance with the resolution adopted at the first national convention of the Legion at Minneapolis requesting the equipment for military funerals. Ten rifles, sufficient to equip a firing squad, will be the limit loaned by the government to each post. It is expected that the war department will soon be ready to issue them at the request of the posts.

Illinois posts were today asked by State Commander Milton J. Foreman, of Chicago, to co-operate with the United States public health service in locating additional space for the treatment of ex-servicemen who are tubercular patients. The government will pay $3 a day per person for such facilities. It is desired that where patients' condition warrant it and facilities are available, they be treated in sanitariums near their homes.

These matters will be taken up before the next regular meeting of the Legion. Many of the officers favor making application at once for the rifles and a supply of ammunition, with a view of receiving them before Decoration day.

D. H. S. BASKET BALL QUINTET

(BY COACH VEZINA)

In spite of the fact that the boys only won about half of their games this season, Dixon is justified in feeling proud of its basketball team. Winning games is not the only thing which makes a team successful. One must be able to take defeat as well as to administer it, and this the boys did a few times during the season with the best of sportsmanship and clean athletics are the first qualities that Dixon coaches work for, and it is safe to say that this aim was fulfilled, for in every game in which the boys played they were praised by their opponents for their clean playing and excellent spirit. This alone indicates a very successful season.

This year Dixon's team was composed of somewhat lighter and younger men than those of former years, but this handicap was partly overcome by the fighting qualities the boys demonstrated throughout the season.

In Capt. Jones, Dixon had a cool-headed, scrappy leader, who was in the thick of it every minute, setting a worthy example for his men. He was undoubtedly the fastest man on the squad, with a good eye for the basket and exceptional ability to advance the ball. Jones has another year in school, which will boost the standard of Dixon's athletics.

Haley proved to be a capable running mate to his captain. "Dick" also was dangerous when within striking distance of the goal, and in addition to this his floor work was good. Haley, too, has another year in school and along with Jones and Bremer, the husky Freshman guard, will form the nucleus of a powerful machine next year. Bremer's work this year deserves much praise. His size made him a difficult man to guard and many times this "husky" rolled them in while being covered, when a goal seemed impossible. His ability to make free throws was such that any college man could be proud of.

The work of Santee, Allen and Devine was especially noticeable on the defense, while the former played a fast game at center. These men will be lost by graduation and their places will be hard to fill. There are also a few subs who deserve a great deal of credit. Ivans, Dale and Kniel, proved to be valuable utility men, especially in the center and guard positions. While at forward Kerz and Stackpole were able seconds. These five men are in many ways responsible for the success of the regular team.

THE BARRIER

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, March 10.—Here is Article Ten, on which the fate of the peace treaty again is suspended—just two compact sentences set in the midst of an eighty thousand word document: "The members of the league undertake to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league. In case of any such aggression or in case of any threat or danger of such aggression, the council shall advise upon the means by which this obligation shall be fulfilled."

Legion Gained Many Members in One Day

The teams of Dixon Post, No. 12, American Legion, which yesterday started the two weeks membership drive, particulars of which were announced in last evening's Telegraph, report having made exceptional progress on the first day of the campaign, over twenty names having been added to the membership roll. Both teams are hard at work, and Royal Fitzsimons, who has been placed in charge of the publicity end of the drive, predicts a hot contest before it is over.

LAUDER ON PROGRAM OF ELKS SHOWS NEXT MONDAY AND TUESDAY

Scotch Monologs and Songs to Be Features—Other Treats Assured.

The atmosphere of Scotland will be brought to Dixon Monday and Tuesday evening when J. E. B. Lauder will present his "Recollections of Harry Lauder," his famous relative to the throngs which will pack the Family theater for the seventh annual minstrel show of Dixon lodge No. 779, B. P. O. Elks. In real Scotch costumes, with a genuine Scotch brogue and with patter, monologue and songs replete with the quaint Scotch humor and pathos, Mr. Lauder's sketch, which will be a part of the olio of the minstrel performance, is sure to delight all his auditors.

Archie Carnegie will demonstrate something new to Dixon audiences in the line of instrumental solos in his part of the olio, when he will play a standard cornet solo on his euphonium. The euphonium has been little used as a solo instrument in this section of the country, and hearers are promised a revelation in the skill and technique possible on this instrument.

From Far Away France

An incident which members of Battery C, 123rd Field Artillery—Dixon's old G. G.—witnessed while with the A. E. F. in France, furnishes the motif for a sketch by Morris Rosbrook, Martin Gannon and Ward Miller, which will also be a feature of the second part of the show. If Louis Pitcher thinks he has ever had any trouble with his phone lines in Dixon or if patrons of the Dixon Home Telephone Co. have ever thought the system was not what it should be, they should witness this replica of service on the A. E. F. communication lines. The sketch is chock full of fun, and during it Mr. Miller will sing "Go Slow, Go Easy."

And the second part will wind up with a strictly local skit—"The End of the World—in which the entire company will take part and in which considerable attention will be paid to affairs in and about Dixon all in a spirit of fun. There will be a number of surprises in this sketch.

Expect Decision on Dry Statute Before Court's June Recess

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, March 10.—Determination of the validity of the prohibition amendment and parts of the enforcement act now rests with the supreme court. Arguments were completed today in appeals brought by the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Company following presentation yesterday of the Rhode Island and Massachusetts cases.

A decision by the court is expected by court officials before adjournment early in June.

Motions made last Monday by Attorney General McLean of New Jersey asking permission to institute for that state original proceedings attacking the prohibition amendment and the Volstead Act still are pending. A decision is not expected before next Monday.

Republic of South Africa May Result From Election Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, March 10.—Parliamentary elections being held today in the Union of South Africa will, it is believed, decide the fate of the government headed by Jan Christian Smuts, which is contending against strong Dutch nationalist elements, aided by the labor party. The result may decide whether Cape Colony, the Transvaal, Orange Free State and Natal are to continue British or are to form a South African Dutch Republic under its own flag and with an elected president.

South Africa is valuable to Great Britain because of its gold fields and separation, it is believed, would meet with strong opposition from the British government.

As Others See Us

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, March 10.—President Wilson's letter to Senator Hitchcock regarding reservations to the Versailles treaty was given little space and a minor position in most of this morning's newspapers.

The Gaulois prints its comment on the first page under the caption "Warnings of Wilson."

"Mr. Wilson," it says, "takes revenge for the silence imposed upon him by illness. In less than twenty-four hours he presents us with two documents in which he affirms with a singularly aggressive manner that he has recovered full possession of his mastery faculties."

"He finishes the weakening of governmental frameworks of order and discipline which he already has so thoroughly shaken. His 'anti-imperialist' formula will bring new encouragement to international Bolshevism under cover of which Germany prepares her future revenge, which Mr. Wilson denounces but not with the clearness and energy we expected from his fairness, if not from his friendship."

The Paris Midi says the accusation of France as militaristic is "impudent" an dit refers to Mr. Wilson's "gratuitous insult to this country."

It adds:

"Mr. Wilson accuses France of being militaristic, and at the same time Josephus Daniels, secretary of the American navy is the only minister in the world who announces an unlimited program of armament."

L'Information says:

"Today there are men conscious of the evident necessities of France but there is no longer a militarist party, properly speaking."

FORMER DIXON TOY CO. BRANCHING OUT

Newton Mfg. Co. to Open Assembly Plant at Freeport.

The following from the Freeport Journal-Standard telling of the growth of the Newton Toy & Novelty Co., which moved from Dixon Jan. 1, will be of interest here:

A new enterprise and one that doubtless will develop into one of large proportions is to be established here in the near future by the Newton Toy & Novelty company, of Chicago, which has decided to open an assembling plant in Freeport, in which it will put together and prepare for shipment its various products, which consist chiefly of metal and wooden toys, hardware specialties and brushes. George W. Newton, president and general manager of the concern, who has been making his home in Dixon, Ill., was here today looking for a house, as he wishes to move to Freeport as soon as he can secure a suitable place to live. He is desirous of renting or leasing a modern house of about 8 rooms.

The Newton Toy & Novelty Co. recently bought a large factory building at Forrester, Ill. into which it moved the machinery it has been using in its branch factory at Dixon, Ill. The goods manufactured at Forrester will be hauled to Freeport by train or motor truck, assembled here and shipped out to patrons, shipping facilities in Freeport being much superior to those in Dixon, from which city the company is retiring.

The company's main plant is situated in Chicago, where the bulk of its stamped metal toys and its hardware articles are manufactured. The Forrester plant is run chiefly for the manufacture of wooden toys and trucks, and the company has been doing a thriving business and could double it if the material could be obtained.

"It is up to America to supply the world with toys for the next twenty years," said Mr. Newton to a Journal-Standard representative today. "We have proved to the world that the American toy manufacturer can give better values for the same money than any foreign competitor. Even in the manufacture of dolls this country is now supreme. All the American toy maker asks is material, he has an unlimited market for his products."

The Newton company sells toys to some of the largest purchasers in this country including the F. W. Woolworth company, owners of a great chain of 5 and 10 cent stores.

PRIEST AND MEMBERS CITY COUNCIL CLASH OVER CITY PAVEMENT

Father Foley Intimated Commissioners Were "Autocrats."

The meeting of the city council and board of local improvements attracted a large attendance last evening and a warm discussion ensued when the Peoria avenue paving project was introduced. Rev. Michael Foley and J. H. Hersam were the only property owners present who voiced their objection to the Peoria avenue improvement.

As at the previous public hearing a warm discussion as to the advantages and disadvantages of the proposed improvement was carried on at considerable length. Mayor Smith at the outset of the hearing announced that personalities would not be tolerated at any stage of the procedure. However, this did not serve to put a damper on some remarks that were passed between the objectors and members of the council.

Some Warm Exchanges

When Rev. Foley indicated that the council was composed of autocrats, Commissioner John J. Armstrong and the speaker clashed. Again when the council was blamed for forcing the local improvements upon the poorer class of people of Dixon, the mayor and Rev. Foley exchanged some heated remarks.

Despite the opposition to the Peoria avenue improvement, the entire program as outlined several weeks ago, was adhered to.

An ordinance was adopted whereby the city vacates a portion of Highland avenue north of First street and east of the present cement retaining wall. The adjoining lot belonging to George Netiz, is to be the site of a new garage.

Attorney Martin J. Gannon was appointed by Mayor Smith to act as commissioner in the spreading of the assessment under local improvement ordinance No. 197.

FRIENDLY SUIT TO TEST POWER U.S. TRADE BODY

Proceedings Started By Ohio Coal Co. to Get Ruling.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, March 10.—Suit to test the powers of the federal trade commission was instituted today in the supreme court of the District of Columbia by the Maynard-Coal Co. of Columbus, Ohio, the first of several legal actions planned by the National Coal Association to determine how far the commission may go in requiring private corporations to furnish information of their business.

An official announcement by the association said the suits were started in friendly spirit and in no way constitute an attack on the commission. Believing that the commission has exceeded its authority in requiring statistical reports in the form and manner prescribed, the association has gone into court to settle judicially the extent to which basic industries are subject to control by the government through the commission. It was said that the association had every reason to believe the commission would be willing that the questions be placed before the courts.

The action instituted today took the form of a request for an injunction to restrain the commission from requiring monthly reports showing costs, income and tonnage and an annual report of financial conditions. It was recited that the commission issued facts and instructions for the preparation of the reports, which in effect prescribed the system of accounting for coal mining operations differing substantially from those commonly in use.

An injunction was requested on the three grounds that the order of the commission requiring the reports exceeded the authority vested in the commission by congress, that if congress gave the commission authority to require such reports the act is unconstitutional and that any power vested in the commission to require such reports was transferred to the fuel administration by presidential order.

Chicago, March 10.—Corn advanced sharply in price today. Wet weather and breaking up of country roads were bullish factors, and so too was strength in European exchange. Commission houses and pit speculators did most of the buying. Initial quotations, which ranged from 1/4¢ off to 1/2¢ up, with May 1.45 1/4, to 1.46 1/4 and July 1.39 to 1.41 1/4, were followed by decided gains all around. Oats advanced with corn. After opening unchanged 1/4¢ higher, including July at 76¢, the market continued to rise. Provisions were easier. Weakness in hog values tended to restrict buying.

NEW RECORD IS MADE AT RECENT ROCKFORD MEET

Receipts for 3 Days
Total $3,000; 1919
Was $2,300.

Rockford, March 10.—The Rockford district basketball tournament, which came to a conclusion Saturday night with Rockford's victory over DeKalb, was the most successful, financially, of the eight seasons which have been held on the floor of Armory hall.

Gross receipts of the three-day session were slightly in excess of $3,000, or approximately $700 more than they were at the record-breaking tournament of 1919, the largest district meet held in the state until this year's event here.

The actual sum realized on the games will fall a little short of $3,000, probably not more than $250 less. Several checks, accompanying orders for tickets which could not be filled must be returned, but after all transactions are completed the management will have on hand so close to the $3,000 mark that the figure might as well stand at that sum.

The Rockford management will receive 40 per cent of this sum, or about $1,200, out of which must be met all the expenses. The expense account will run higher than ever this year, but it is believed that about $600 will be left to go into the high school treasury after all the bills are met.

A small percentage of the gross receipts goes to the state association, and the remainder to the visiting teams, to be paid out pro rata on the basis of the mileage traveled and the number of days each remained in the tournament. There will be enough on hand to pay all expenses and leave a substantial bonus for every team, as has been the case in every tournament held on the Rockford floor.

Mr. Burrows was born in Jefferson county, N. Y., Aug. 22, 1844. He served in the 10th N. Y. Heavy Artillery, enlisting in 1862, until the close of the war. He came to Illinois in 1865 and was married to Frederika Hemken in 1867. To this union ten children were born, six of whom have preceded him in death. He leaves to mourn his passing: One daughter, Mrs. D. O. Brokin, of Crawfordsville, Ind., and three sons, David H., of Alpha, Minn., and Henry E. and John L., of Dixon.

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Dixon. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

G. Stieling, 1206 W. Sixth St., Dixon, says: "I have been a stone mason for several years and it has been pretty hard on my back at times. I blamed the heavy lifting for my kidney trouble. One day while lifting a stone, I was suddenly seized with a sharp, shooting pain across my back. I kept going from bad to worse and was laid up for a month, unable to work. My kidneys were in terrible shape and I had to get up at night to pass the kidney secretions and they contained a brick-dust-like sediment. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me. I have no need of a kidney medicine now, as Doan's have made a permanent cure."

ILLINOIS MAN HAS GAINED 30 POUNDS

Enjoys Good Health for First Time in Twenty-Five Years—Praises Tanlac.

"Since I started taking Tanlac I have not only gained thirty pounds in weight, but for the first time in twenty-five years I am enjoying good health," said J. J. Craig, of 421 North Madison street, Bloomington, Ill., recently.

"Yes, I am fifty years of age," he continued, "and twenty-five of these years have been spent in misery and suffering without a let-up until I began taking Tanlac. I was never able to eat a thing without filling up with gas afterwards and having such intense cramping pains in my stomach I could hardly stand them. Why, at times I would have these spells of cramps while at work, and have to be taken home, where I would lie for hours almost unconscious. I was all run down and weak, and would play out before I had worked half a day, and very often had to quit and go home. But, thanks to Tanlac, this is all a thing of the past, now.

"Tanalac has simply made a new man of me, and it has given me good health, something I never expected to have again. I can sit down, now, and eat anything without its hurting me the least bit. I am never troubled with gas and never have the least sign of a pain in my stomach. I feel strong and vigorous all the time, and am able to work every day and all day long with the greatest ease. No, sir, I wouldn't take all the money in Bloomington for what Tanlac has done for me, and I expect to praise it as long as I live."

TANLAC is sold in Dixon by Public Drug & Book Co. and by the leading druggists in every town.

The Missionary society of the Grace Evangelical church held a very pleasant and well attended meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred W. Smith. Thirty-four members and seven guests were in attendance and during the day one new member was enrolled.

The program of the afternoon was very interesting and was in charge of the president, Mrs. Philip Miller. Mrs. George Webster had the scripture lesson and Mrs. Edward Graves, with the assistance of several other members, interestingly developed the lesson subject, "China."

That China is awake, ready to throw off the sloth of ages, was brought out. The condition of the women, the customs, superstitions of the country, the effect of Christianity and the hospitals established by Christians missions, which are as lights of compassion in a sea of darkness.

Miss Miriam Smith, the daughter of the hostess, gave some delightful piano selections and Mrs. C. G. Unangst and Mrs. Klein sang a beautiful vocal duet.

INTERESTING ADDRESS HEARD—
Mrs. Clendennen, of Oak Park, conference secretary of the Young People's work in the Methodist church, gave a most entertaining talk before the members of the Women's Home Missionary society and their guests, the members of the Queen Esther society, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Llevan, Tuesday evening. She had seventy keenly interested listeners as she told of her work among the young people of many nationalities and religions, the Japanese, the Negroes, and the Spaniards, and the Mexicans.

She told of the responsiveness of these people who are eager to learn and after learning, go to their own people to carry the message of Christian living and American civilization.

Along Halsted street, Chicago, for a distance of two miles, in one of her walks she discovered that foreign language papers and not a single one printed in the English language, found their way into the homes daily.

Mrs. Clendennen used maps in illustrating her talk, making the points doubly clear and interesting. Two beautiful vocal numbers by Mrs. Edna Charles and two well rendered piano selections given by Miss Frances Ackert completed the very enjoyable program. Refreshments were served during the social time which followed when the members of both societies were given the privilege of meeting Mrs. Clendennen.

The first thing to think of in preparing for an invalid is to make everything look attractive.

An ill person is very apt to be "finicky" and have little appetite. The cook must tempt the appetite by pleasing the eye.

Try not to crowd the tray. Dishes lapping over each other cause a muddle and confusion that is tiring to sick nerves and makes eating seem to be an effort.

My Own Recipes
When using the whites of eggs plan to use the yolks for salad dressing or cake. While eggs are expensive any dish prepared with several eggs contains more nourishment than one in which the eggs are conspicuous by their absence. However, there is reason in all things and the old-fashioned recipes calling for 10 or 12 eggs are unreasonable.

CREAMED NOODLES
2 eggs
2 tablespoons milk
1/4 teaspoon salt

Beat eggs slightly with milk and salt. Add flour to make a stiff dough. Put on a floured molding board and roll very thin. When partly dry, roll up and cut in narrow strips. Drop in to boiling salted water and boil 15 minutes. Drain. Pour over cream to Constantinople, March 9.—Sali Pasha—the new grand vizier, has announced with Sultan's approval, the formation of a new cabinet, the eighth since armistice. Diplomats in this city attach little importance to the changes made, considering the cabinet to be virtually powerless to oppose the nationalist group in the chamber, which is directed by Mustapha Kemal from Angora.

THE OLD HONESTY AND THE NEW.

The Interchurch Bulletin publishes the following editorial:

It is the fashion nowadays to deplore the general want of moral principle, and to lament the decline of old-fashioned honesty.

But, really, how about this old-fashioned honesty?

It is always easy to see a saint in a dead relative, just as it is easy to see a statesman in a dead politician.

Grandfather's virtues, like grandfather's clocks, may be a badge of respectability, but in our own day they are not always in good running order.

Our forefathers were no better than we are. Indeed, to judge from some criticism of their contemporaries, they were a good deal worse.

The world in which old-fashioned honesty lived was singularly uncomplicated. Smith knew Jones and Jones knew Smith, and if the one did not cheat the other there was every chance that each would die in the odor of respectability. Individualism set the limits to old-fashioned honesty.

We need this individualistic honesty today, and we have it. But we need today a very much bigger sort of honesty—an honesty which sees that our obligations are set not alone by our relations with one another, but also our relations with municipalities and states, with a nation and a world.

Such honesty is not any too common, but it is growing.

Men have gone down to their mausoleums labeled honest millionaires, who were directors in corporations whose methods would bring blushes to the cheek of a confidence man. According to the standard of old-fashioned honesty there was nothing to be said against these honest millionaires. But from the point of view of the new honesty they were thieves, though they robbed legally.

Morality is always a generation or two ahead of legality.

The number of offenses against the moral and legal codes is increasing constantly.

Moral principle never cut so large a figure in the affairs of this American people as it does today.

We have twenty moral qualms where our goodly ancestors had one.

It never occurred to them that a lottery was wrong, or to whip a child or a wife, or to enslave the black man and cheat the red man.

Nine out of ten of the little conscientious niceties of life are discoveries of the last fifty years.

More societies to do all sorts of good and work all kinds of reforms have been created in the last two generations than had been formed or thought of before from the beginning of the world.

The vast union of evangelical effort of today, achieved in the Interchurch World Movement, was hardly even a dream a short decade ago. Out of inspired vision, spiritualized purpose and consecrated means is now set up a mighty Empire of Righteousness, of world-wide beneficence.

We are getting better. No doubt about it. But there is still plenty of room for improvement.

MALE AND FEMALE

It costs a single girl just $83.00 more a year to live when she works and supports herself in Washington, D. C., than it does her brother.

Such is the result of Uncle Sam's investigation of the annual budget necessary to maintain a single man and a single woman in the clerical service of the government in Washington, D. C., at a level of health and decency.

The man and the woman pay the same for the following items per year:

Room, $180; board $312; lunches, $78.25;

other food, $13; religion, $5.20; dues, $5; newspapers, $9.40; car fare, $37.20.

When it comes to clothing—ah, that's a different matter! The poor male person is allowed $158.36; but his sister worker must have $240.15 per annum. And laundry—there's the rub! The man gets along with $52.00 worth of cleansing per annum, but the woman must have $65.00. Brother is assumed to be a bit huskier, too, for his medical, dental and oculist charges are put at only $32.00 a year, while his compatriot must have $43.00 to contribute to the medical profession. The male animal requires more amusing, though. He must have $39.00 worth per annum, while the woman can get along on $20.00 worth of amusements. One suspects that the unmarried male is expected to pay for the theater seats when he takes the unmarried female worker out in the evening. "Other incidentals," presumably including such luxuries as the filthy weed, net the male creature $26.00 per annum, while the lady gets along on $20.00.

THE SILLY GEES.

With the northern migration of ducks and geese about to begin, observers of the sky lanes will have beautiful opportunities to see how nature has supplied these wild birds with that instinct that eases them in the work of making the great journeys from winter feeding grounds to summer nesting homes.

Their application of the principle of the wedge is perfect. Humans know it in the share of the common plow, in the vessel's prow, in a score of wedge-shaped articles used for separation. The arrangement of flying in two battalions with a common apex, as large flocks of ducks and geese do, is the easiest for progress through the air, and results in the least fatigue.

Long before man had applied this principle the wild birds were flying that way. And more than that. For in a V of geese, when the leader becomes tired he retires to the rear to recuperate, and a fresh bird takes his place.

The point of the wedge has the hardest work. The others follow in so close that the displaced air hasn't time to close in again.

Birdland divides the labor. In small flocks, sometimes there is but a single file, no wedge. If one watches close he may find that the tip of the bird's beak all but touches the tail of the one ahead. That, too, is so that the air displaced by the preceding bird may not close in before the following bird is into it. Each has to meet less air resistance that way.

One must take his hat off to whoever implanted that wonderful instinct in the heads of birds sometimes referred to as being "silly geese."

It might not be a bad idea to have a sedition bill with teeth if we had any assurance that it would always bite the right people.

LITTLE, OLD TOWN

Little, old town which the sun shines through
And the wind blows kindly by,
There's something inside me calling you
And I vainly wonder why.
For when I was of you, all of us said
The town was dull and the town was dead.
And whenever a lucky one went away,
We made it a text for a holiday.
Little old town with the string of stores
And the band stand in the square,
With its playhouse potter of lazy chores
And its daily devil-may-care;
With its little, white church on the shaded street,
Where the boys and the girls were apt to meet,
And if ever the angels heard their prayers
They must have noted persistent pains.
Little old town which the sun shines through
And the wind blows kindly by,
Neither would nor weather take note of you,
For if one of the old town's shabbiest kin
Comes up to the city and wanders in,
Oh we seek for a corner and sit us down
And live over years in the little, old town.

"THE CALL OF SPRING"

Uncle Sam M.D.

"UNCLE SAM, M. D., will answer questions of general interest relating to hygiene, sanitation, and the prevention of disease. Address: INFORMATION EDITOR, U. S. Public Health Service, WASHINGTON, D. C."

CAUSE OF WHOOPING-COUGH.

For a long time the cause of whooping-cough was unknown, but it is now known that the germ responsible for the disease is a small, rod-shaped bacterium, which occurs in the sputum several days before the patient begins to whoop and continues there for several days after whooping ceases.

The exact period of incubation is not known. Observations seem to show that it varies from 2 to 10 days. This is the period from the time the germ lodges in the individual to the time the first symptoms begin.

The child at first has the symptoms of an ordinary cold in the head and throat, accompanied by sharp, nervous coughs, which have a tendency to come in a series. This gradually increases until there is a succession of violent coughs, accompanied by a feeling of suffocation and flushing of the face.

As soon as the cough has ceased, the little sufferer endeavors to fill up its lungs again, but there is a nervous spasm of the muscles of the throat which narrows the opening through which the air must pass. The violent attempt to inspire the air through this small space produces the familiar "whoop," from which the disease receives its name.

If the child is kept quiet the paroxysms occur less frequently. They may be brought about by the inhalation of dust or by excitement. Laughing, crying, eating or drinking may also provoke them. Not infrequently the violence of the cough may cause vomiting or the involuntary passage of urine or feces.

ANSWERED.

Q.—Does too much milk and cream serve to bring on constipation?
A.—In some persons milk does produce constipation. Cream very rarely does. The trouble, however, can be remedied so easily that it should not keep one from drinking milk. Growing children especially should have milk regularly.

Q.—How many cigars should a man limit himself to if he smokes no cigarettes or a pipe?
A.—With the passing of the "six for a quarter," for most men the answer to this question is automatically determined by individual circumstances and by the pocketbook. Over-indulgence in tobacco is distinctly injurious, and it is hygienically a good rule which prohibits smoking during business hours.

Q.—I have catarrh, and have spent much money in medicine, but all in vain. I have a persistent cough with it. What should I do to get rid of it?
A.—The term "catarrh" is very loosely applied to many different conditions. In most of the cases, there is some form of chronic nasal catarrh, and often this is accompanied by an inflammation of the passages communicating with the nose, the so-called sinuses. In still other cases, the trouble is really tuberculous. When there is chronic nasal catarrh, local treatment by a good nose and throat specialist will sometimes relieve the condition permanently. The taking of so-called "catarrh cures" is usually worse than useless.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

Next, Nick and Nancy came to a stream in Topsy-Turvy Land, and were wondering how they could get over, when they saw a rough log accommodated across. They were half way over, away out where the water was deep, when the log suddenly sank, and the twins were struggling helplessly in the water.

Suddenly they realized they were feeling very pleasant as they sank lower and lower under the surface of the stream, and that the Magical Mushroom was muttering, "Don't be afraid. You have the Green Shoes and they'll keep you safe. This is only another adventure!"

Then they discovered that the rough, old log was right beside them, and the next thing they discovered was that the log had a head, a great, long flat one, and a tail, a great, long, sharp one, and short legs with feet and claws. "What kind of a log are you, please?" inquired the little boy curiously, as he sank lower and lower toward the bottom of the stream.

"Why, I'm not a log at all. I'm an alligator," answered the creature. "Didn't you know?"

"No," apologized Nick hastily. "I never saw one before." And then, feeling that it was quite necessary to say something pleasant, as people always do when they have failed to recognize a friend, he added, "I never knew you were so handsome."

This pleased the alligator so much that he smiled broadly and showed all his teeth. Nancy thought she liked him better when he didn't smile. "There! There!" said the alligator. "I knew you were the right kind of people. I am taking you home to meet the family. Besides I need some good advice. I have a very sad story and want someone to tell me what to do."

"We don't know very much," answered Nick, modestly, "but we'll help all we can."

Just then they arrived at Mr. Crocodile's fashionable house at the bottom of the stream.

Confessions of a Bride

(Copyright 1920, by The Newspaper Enterprise Association)

"Think, Bob! If you are detected, you'll be shot for a spy!" I wailed almost forgetting to speak as low as prudence required. Bob bit his lip, as if to warn me that we must not betray his real condition to a living soul.

"Trust me—I am not going to be shot for a spy, my love—and leave you to Certeis! Of course I couldn't turn the trick we've stacked the cards for—couldn't pretend to revert to my former state of mental irresponsibility, if Certeis hadn't studied my case so carefully months ago. Now I'm gambling on the chance that he'll take it for granted that my old symptoms have returned owing to that blow on my head. I don't believe he'll ever guess I'm shamming!"

"Go to sleep, Bob. Or rather, relapse into your stupor. We've talked an hour. It's about time for Certeis to come in to give you your medicine."

Bob raised my hands to his lips, before he spoke: "When I come out of this stupor, I will not know you—as my wife. You understand?"

I wept for an answer. Bob went on: "No matter what may happen, promise me that you will not have more fits of jealousy, dear heart."

I promised. Soon Bob went off to sleep. I sat by his side and reviewed our strange situation. He and I were swallowed up in the strangest of all possible places. So far as the Lorimer family was concerned, we had vanished from the face of the earth. Morrison would never guess what had become of us! Nobody would ever find out unless we escaped—somehow—to tell the tale ourselves!

According to his own schedule, Bob came out of his stupor the next morning. He didn't know me! I sent for Dr. Certeis—and I wept softly while Bob regarded me with indifference!

For a moment, a flash of triumph glowed in Hamilton Certeis' blue eyes; Bob caught it, as I did and his shamming was put to a great test. He did not, by the contraction of a muscle nor the dropping of an eyelid, betray his recognition of the greedy glance which Certeis swept over me. Bob merely passed his signet case to Certeis.

My husband was, in his new condition, much more seriously ill than he had ever been. Certeis told me, Bob liable to go insane at any moment, Certeis said—much more apt to go insane than to recover!

"You'll let me nurse him—stay with him—wait on him—indoors and out-doors?" I pleaded.

So it happened that I went wherever Bob went. Day after day we watched Certeis and Don Manuel go their separate ways in the powerful cars which were forever coming to the hacienda—and going away most mysteriously—at all hours of the day and night.

"That trouble—on the border—is being brewed under our very noses!" whispered Bob as we sat by the fountain in the patio one warm noon. "And that sleek Don Manuel is doing his half, too. But—there's some more than one way of disposing of Don Manuel—in case he proves an enemy of our country."

"Rosalie?" I ventured—and then I added, "Bob, do you remember how unwilling Katherine Miller left the cave? She wanted to wait there—alone—until Don Manuel should come for her?"

"Remember?" I should say I do—with disgust!

"Can't you see that Katherine is going to get back to that cave, some day soon, in spite of Morrison?"

"If she does—she'll meet the gentle Rosalie!"

"And then?"

I shuddered—and let Bob answer his own question.

"I'd rather not think what might happen next!"

"Miss Miller is as stubborn as a mule," said I. "But I know how to save her from Don Manuel's sixth wife."

Then I told Bob about the bag of money which I had left so singularly and so safely hidden in the cockpit of the airplane—a treasure hung between the heavens and earth.

"She could bribe Rosalie?" Bob asked.

"I'm not sure. Perhaps Rosalie will prefer her revenge to any sum of money."

COW TESTING ASSN. NO. 2

COST OF PRODUCTION

The price of milk at Dixon station for February was $3.35 for 100 lbs. for milk testing 3.5, and 4c for every tenth of a point over 3.5. It cost five members of Lee County No. 2 Association an average of $2.49 to produce 100 lbs. or 3.5 milk. This cost is feed cost only. These members ship to Dixon and pay 20 cents per 100 lbs. for some, thereby costing $2.69 per hundred pounds to this point. Leaving a profit over feed and hauling of 66 cents a hundred pounds. In a careful study of hundreds of dairy farms the university at Urbana found that it requires 2 1/2 hours to produce 100 lbs. of milk. This would give these men 26 cents an hour for their labor and management of the "Foster Mother of the World." This is not figuring from $2000 to $6500 these men have invested which cost them from 6 to 7% interest at the bank. But let's say calf and manure offset interest on money invested. Are the dairy men of Lee county so financially fixed so they can sit back on their haunches and keep a herd of scrubs, while your fellowmen are drawing $1.00 an hour, as painters, carpenters and factory trades. Dairy men, wake up and unload that Bolshevik cow. The above figures by no means are the highest most in Lee County. For I believe the best herd owners in the county are members of said cow testing association.

R. E. Sherman, Tester.

Miscellaneous Report

The average production per cow for February was 750 lbs. of milk and 28.1 lbs. of butter fat. Cost to produce 100 lbs. of milk testing 3.5 was $2.18. Forty-six cows produced over 40 lbs. of butter fat. Thirteen cows gave more than 50 lbs. of milk daily. Note the low percentage of 50 lb. cows in Lee county. Mr. Wm. Finch owns nine of the above, four producing 50 lbs. milk daily. The majority of herds are holding their own in production.

During her absence the girls are furnished with plenty of excitement by some boys from a camp across the river. The chaperon is finally found and everything ends happily.

The basket ball season is now over and the fellows are looking forward to a track and baseball team. A big track meet may be held at DeKalb, to which Dixon has been asked to send a team in shape "Tuffy" you're the best man old Dixon H. S. can enter. "Tuffy" was entered at Oregon last spring and he sure did show the rest of the sprinters some speed. "Jack" says he can see a second Loomis in "Tuffy."

The Anti-Man club held a progressive supper Tuesday evening, consisting of four courses: first, grapefruit; second, meat; third, salad and fourth, dessert. Thence to the show.

SKY PILOTS BEATEN.

The Radiators refused to spring a leak, and even the Sky Pilots couldn't make them see the error of their ways so they took two out of three games in the volley ball tournament last evening. The first game started with the Radiators going strong but before the game was over the Sky Pilots struck a batting rally and refused to stop till they had run up 15 points to the Radiators' 13. But from then on the Radiators had everything their own way and while the games were interesting and scrappy they had no trouble in taking the next two games 15-7 and 15-7. The "gallery" was strong for the Sky Pilots and if rooting could win a game the Pilots should have won, as deafening.

SKYPILOTS--Babin, captain; Miller, Raymond, Forsythe, Shaw, Rice. RADIATORS--Rawls, captain; Pottinger, Bates, Wheeler, Stauffer, Stearns and Kuhn.

Referee, Vezina. Scorer, Potter. Umpire, Wilson.

Thursday evening the Plowmakers will meet the Pillrollers, in three fast games.

ON THE ALLEYS.

Thomson's team in the Class B tournament won from Miller's by 126 pins. Gonnerman's won from Schuele by the scant margin of ten pins.

On Friday, March 12th, at 8:00 p. m. there will be a mixed double match between Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Self and E. B. and Elizabeth Raymond.

IMPORTANT TO ALL WOMEN READERS OF THIS PAPER

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it.

Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease.

If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased.

You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition.

Poor health makes you nervous irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions.

Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED--AND EARNED

(CHAPTER 31.)

I had not dreamed it was so late. And I had intended to tell Robert of Marion Hovey's insulting talk the moment he came in. But I simply said:

"I did not know it was so late. Did you have a good time?"

"No, I never have a good time any more." His answer was ungracious in the extreme, but I never noticed. Long after he slept I lay going over what I had heard--the opinion that a woman who brazenly acknowledged she loved my husband, had of me.

I had intended, when telling Robert of the things Marion Hovey had said, to tell him also that she had declared her love for him. Now I commenced to waver. If he thought she cared in that way, would it not be an added temptation to him to be with her? Yet I knew that once I commenced to tell of her, my visit, it would be almost impossible for me to keep that confession to myself. By the time the morning broke, I had decided to tell him nothing about it. I would not mention my visit. If she told him, why I would decide what to say.

But I was unhappy, terribly so. Had

WHEN NERVOUS AND RUNDOWN

Advance, Ills.—"After a hard and serious illness I was restored to a perfectly healthy condition through Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which I took as a tonic. It proved to be such a splendid tonic that I have taken it many times since then whenever I have been nervous and run down and it has never failed to strengthen and build me up in health."

"I can also speak just as highly of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' as a blood purifier and a medicine that is safe to give to little children. When one of my daughters was only a year old she had scrofulous sores all over her head. I gave her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it healed up every blemish and her hair grew nice and thick. She has grown to womanhood and has never had any return of blood disorder of any sort since that time. I give the 'Discovery' all the credit due it for this cure and take pleasure in recommending it."

—Mrs. ETNA LEWIS, care Mrs. P. M. ROBERTS, R. R. 1—Box 31.

Quincy, Ill.—"I am glad to tell what Dr. Pierce's Anuric (for the kidneys) has done for me; it is a fine remedy. I had been a great sufferer with my back and hip for years but 'Anuric' did wonders for me. I have taken two small bottles and now tell everyone what a good medicine it is."

—Mrs. STELLA STECKDALL, 1532 Jefferson St.

Kentucky Will Get Battle Flag Lost in the War of 1812

Frankfort, Ky., March 9.—James Buchanan, Louisville, a descendant of Colonel William Whitley, commander of the Kentucky Volunteers in the battle of the Thames in Michigan, in the war of 1812, will go to England, as commissioner of the state of Kentucky to bring back the Kentucky battle flag which was lost at that battle.

The upper house of the general assembly yesterday appropriated expenses for Mr. Buchanan's trip.

Prosecution of Tax Dodgers is Bringing Returns

Chicago, March 9.—Speedy prosecution of tax payers accused of filing false income tax returns is netting the tax officials a lucrative second harvest, they say.

Hundreds of people have discovered "innocent irregularities" in their returns after going over their finances for a second time the officials say.

One accounting firm reported that twelve business houses have made arrangements for an analysis of their books to see if irregularities occurred in making out the returns.

Bryan Against Sen. Hitchcock, He States

Lincoln, Neb., March 9.—Opposition to United States Senator G. M. Hitchcock as a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination was expressed by William Jennings Bryan in a statement made public here today.

Mr. Bryan announced that if elected a delegate to the democratic national convention he would not vote for Senator Hitchcock.

Among reasons given for his opposition to Senator Hitchcock were that he voted against submission of the federal prohibition and woman suffrage amendments and had opposed the currency bill passed during President Wilson's first administration.

No Other Light Car Offers So Much

Unusual power and control, quick pick-up and extraordinary acceleration to real speed, are features inherent in the Cleveland Six and features with which Cleveland owners are delighted.

Many a Cleveland Six owner has said, "It would be hard to tell you what a good car the Cleveland honestly is. It's wonderful."

The Cleveland is wonderful because it is a splendidly developed and finished product, not a car rushed into the market. Three years ago the plans for production of this car were far advanced. But, with war approaching, production and marketing were delayed though experimental and engineering work were continued and test cars kept on the road. When war ended, came the Cleveland.

Built in a fine big factory, with all conditions and equipment assuring the very best of manufacture, and built by men whose successful experience had been wholly in the production of fine cars, the Cleveland Six began rolling out to the world last August. Since then thousands have gone to delighted owners, and thousands more are going every month.

There isn't any other light car that will give you so much of all that you wish, and at such a fair price.

Come let us show you what a car the Cleveland is

SAGE TEA BEAUTIFIES AND DARKENS HAIR

Don't Stay Gray! It Darkens So Naturally that Nobody can Tell.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, say a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

Those whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful.

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound to-night and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

This preparation is a toilet requisite and is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

GRACE CHURCH.

On last Sunday morning the pastor suggested that P. O. would be an appropriate title for the members of Grace church. The letters stand for Faith and Obedience—that is faith in God and obedience to God. The suggestion seemed to meet with favor. The Bible Conference held last week was a great blessing to the people. Mr. and Mrs. Harris made many friends in Dixon and we shall be glad to have them with us again at some time in the future.

Next Sunday will be the last Sunday in the conference year. At the morning service the pastor will give a review of the year's work. He will leave for Freeport on next Tuesday, to attend the session of the Illinois Conference.

The service on next Sunday evening will be of unusual interest to the people of Dixon. One of the "Story and Song Series," published by the Tuller-Meredith Co., will be given.

The story was written by Mrs. E. M. Whitmore, founder of the mission known as "The Door of Hope," in New York City. The musical arrangement is by I. H. Meredith. Mrs. Unangst will read the story and the music will be given by the choir. The description of the transformation of "Deba," is thrillingly interesting. Old and young will enjoy it.

The annual meeting of the congregation will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30. All members of the church are urged to be present.

SUNDAY EVE SERMON.

The sermon on "The Second Coming of Christ," delivered at Grace United Evangelical church last Sunday evening, was well received. The new chorus, "Wait Till Jesus Comes," was sung with degree of holy joy and enthusiasm, and it constituted a fine climax at the close of the service. A spirit of victory pervaded the congregation.

Rev. Unangst said in part: The second coming of Christ is mentioned in one verse in every twenty-five in the New Testament. The book of Revelation, which describes the final unfolding of the affairs of the world, announces it repeatedly. There are three distinct references to it in the last chapter, namely in verses 7, 12 and 20. Its prominence seems to suggest

Lancaster, Pa.—"I was weak and run down, had pains in my head, back and stomach all the time, and bearing down pains. I had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me, so my mother got me to try it again, and I am now feeling better than I have for years. We were married sixteen years and had no children, but now we have a fine big boy and we always call him our 'Pinkham' boy. The doctor was afraid of my case as I was 41 years old when the boy was born, but I came through all right. You can use this as a testimonial if you wish and I will certainly write to any one who writes to me about it."

BAD BREATH

Caused by Acid-Stomach

How can anyone with a sour, gassy stomach, who is constantly belching, has heartburn and suffers from indigestion have anything but a bad breath? All of these stomach disorders mean just one thing—Acid-Stomach.

EATONIC

that it is a doctrine of great importance.

There are many reasons why we should pray for Christ's return to the earth. His coming will mean the complete overthrow of Satan's Empire. The second chapter of Job indicates that he is the one who inspires and directs the disturbances in nature and in society. There will be no relief from his oppression for the world as a whole, till Christ comes.

At his return, Christ will become the ruler of the world. That will mean an ideal government for humanity—Richness, and peace and joy, will be its characteristics.

That will be the time of the deliverance and glorification of God's children. Their true character and worth will then be manifested and recognized. At the present time they are princes in disguise.

Christ will bring deliverance from injustice, oppression and war. He will bring about conditions of universal quietness, assurance and prosperity. There will be no sickness, no higher criticism, and no false religions. Such things will not be tolerated. Sin will be judged, instantly, and duly punished. This will then be a restful, singing earth.

It is the purpose of God that the promises and prophecies of the Bible shall be translated into prayers. Spiritually minded people know how to plead the promises; they need to make the prophecies subjects of earnest prayer also. They reveal God's program for the future, and intelligent prayer must have that program in mind. The aged Apostle John is an

RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN FROM ACHING JOINTS

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. Its "pain" only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain and distress. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, back-ache and neuralgia.

Limber up! Get a small trial bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment, you'll be free from pain, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

SAYS ACID STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION

Excess of hydrochloric acid sours the food and forms gases.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and stews food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a heavy balloon. Then we feel like a toy junky misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescent and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

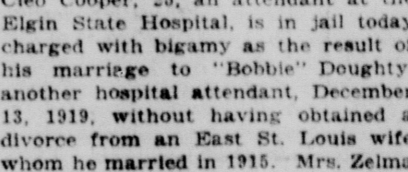

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED--AND EARNED

(CHAPTER 81.)

I had not dreamed it was so late. And I had intended to tell Robert of Marion Hovey's insulting talk the moment he came in. But I simply said:

"I did not know it was so late. Did you have a good time?"

"No, I never have a good time, any more." His answer was ungracious in the extreme, but I never noticed. Long after he slept I lay going over what I had heard—the opinion that a woman who brazenly acknowledged she loved her husband, had of me.

I had intended, when telling Robert of the things Marion Hovey had said, to tell him also that she had declared her love for him. Now I commenced to waver. If he thought she cared in that way, would it not be an added temptation to him to be with her? Yet I knew that once I commenced to talk of her, my visit, it would be almost impossible for me to keep that confession to myself. By the time the morning broke, I had decided to tell him nothing about it. I would not mention my visit. If she told him, why I would decide what to say.

But I was unhappy, terribly so. Had

WHEN NERVOUS AND RUNDOWN

Advance, Ills.—"After a hard and serious illness I was restored to a perfectly healthy condition through Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription which I took as a tonic. It proved to be such a splendid tonic that I have taken it many times since then whenever I have been nervous and run down and it has never failed to strengthen and build me up in health.

"I can also speak just as highly of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' as a blood purifier and a medicine that is safe to give to little children. When one of my daughters was only a year old she had scrofulous sores all over her head. I gave her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it healed up every blemish and her hair grew nice and thick. She has grown to womanhood and has never had any return of blood disorder of any sort since that time. I give the 'Discovery' all the credit due it for this cure and take pleasure in recommending it."—Mrs. ERRA LEWIS, care Mrs. P. M. ROBERTS, R. R. 1—Box 31.

Quincy, Ill.—"I am glad to tell what Dr. Pierce's Anuric (for the kidneys) has done for me; it is a fine remedy. I had been a great sufferer with my back and hip for years but 'Anuric' did wonders for me. I have taken two small bottles and now tell everyone what a good medicine it is."—Mrs. STELLA STEEDALL, 1532 Jefferson St.

I, who loved Robert so intensely, really ruined his life? Was I to blame for his drinking, his visits to the pool room?

"Do you love me, Robert?" I asked when he was dressing. It was the first time I had asked such a question, and he looked his surprise. Then he said:

"What has made you think I do not?"

"Oh, nothing! I just wondered. Perhaps it is because you go out so much lately, and leave me alone."

"I should go mad if I stayed here, sucking my thumbs, thinking of things—or listening to how many hats you have sold."

"I won't talk shop, Robert, if you will stay with me, I promise. I haven't realized I talked so you were bored."

"You can't help it. Women who work are all that way."

"Shall we go up to the Weeds to-night, dear?" I asked.

"I don't care. Go if you want to."

"Very well, come home early, and we'll get dinner somewhere, and then go up there. I'll telephone Betty we are coming."

When we were first married and I had not met these friends of his, Robert was enthusiastic over them, and for a long time afterward. Now he scarcely spoke of them, and never proposed spending the evening with them as he used. I had had it with his pride. He had lost a good position, while both Frank and Carson had been advanced to a better one at about the same time. But I must do something. I would not lose him! In spite of Marion Hovey, and what she had said, he belonged to me.

I reached home before Robert did, and made myself as attractive as possible.

"Why the glad rags?" Robert asked when he came in. "Who's going to be there besides us?"

"No one! Betty said we would play cards." Then I said: "I dressed up for you, Robert. We haven't been out together in so long. I thought you might like to see me look nice."

"You look nice all right! But everyone knows you pay for your own clothes—that I couldn't buy you a dress like that out of my princely salary."

"Don't Robert! Please be nice to-night. I felt that I should cry in a minute. The lack of sleep, the emotion, my unhappy day full of unpleasant thoughts, had left me in a nervous state which I determined to hide so that Robert might enjoy the evening. And the very thing I hoped would please him had only brought bitterness."

"Come on, I'm ready," was his answer.

We dined simply at a restaurant about half way between our home and the Weeds. Then we walked the remaining distance. Robert had chatted amiably thru dinner, and that and the walk in the fresh air had quieted my nerves.

"It's time you came!" Frank declared. "I told Betty the other night I must have done something to offend you."

"No, indeed, Frank! We have talked of coming, but something has interfered every time," I replied. "But we are coming offener now. How would it be to set one evening a week for cards either here or at our house?" "Fine and dandy!" Frank returned. So it was settled, altho Robert had not spoken.

GRACE CHURCH.

On last Sunday morning the pastor suggested that F. O. would be an appropriate title for the members of Grace church. The letters stand for Faith and Obedience—that is faith in God and obedience to God. The suggestion seemed to meet with favor.

The Bible Conference held last week was a great blessing to the people. Mr. and Mrs. Harris made many friends in Dixon and we shall be glad to have them with us again at some time in the future.

Next Sunday will be the last Sunday in the conference year. At the morning service the pastor will give a review of the year's work. He will leave for Freeport on next Tuesday, to attend the session of the Illinois Conference.

The service on next Sunday evening will be of unusual interest to the people of Dixon. One of the "Story and Song Series," published by the Tuller-Meredith Co., will be given. The story was written by Mrs. E. M. Whittemore, founder of the mission known as "The Door of Hope," in New York City. The musical arrangement is by L. H. Meredith. Mrs. Unangst will read the story and the music will be given by the choir. The description of the transformation of "Della," is thrillingly interesting. Old and young will enjoy it.

The annual meeting of the congregation will be held on Thursday evening at 7:30. All members of the church are urged to be present.

SUNDAY EVE SERMON.
The sermon on "The Second Coming of Christ," delivered at Grace United Evangelical church last Sunday evening, was well received. The new chorus, "Wait Till Jesus Comes," was sung with degree of holy joy and enthusiasm, and it constituted a fine climax at the close of the service. A spirit of victory pervaded the congregation.

Rev. Unangst said in part: The second coming of Christ is mentioned in one verse in every twenty-five in the New Testament. The book of Revelation, which describes the final unfolding of the affairs of the world, announces it repeatedly. There are three distinct references to it in the last chapter; namely in verses 7, 12 and 20. Its prominence seems to suggest

Please Read This Letter And See What Normal Health Will Do For You.

Lancaster, Pa.—"I was weak and run down, had pains in my head, back and stomach all the time, and bearing down pains. I had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it helped me, so my mother got me to try it again, and I am now feeling better than I have for years. We were married sixteen years and had no children, but now we have a fine big boy and we always call him our 'Pinkham' boy. The doctor was afraid of my case as I was 41 years old when the boy was born, but I came through all right. You can use this as a testimonial if you wish and I will certainly write to any one who writes to me about it."

—Mrs. MARGARET G. HAVERCAMP, 529 Howard Avenue, Lancaster, Pa.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

BAD BREATH

Caused by Acid-Stomach

How can anyone with a sour, gassy stomach, who is constantly belching, burping and suffers from indigestion have a fresh breath? All of these stomach disorders mean just one thing—Acid-Stomach.

that it is a doctrine of great importance.

There are many reasons why we should pray for Christ's return to the earth. His coming will mean the complete overthrow of Satan's Empire. The second chapter of Job indicates that he is the one who inspires and directs the disturbances in nature and in society. There will be no relief from his oppression for the world as a whole, till Christ comes.

At his return, Christ will become the ruler of the world. That will mean an ideal government for humanity. Righteousness, peace and joy will be his characteristics.

That will be the time of the deliverance and glorification of God's children. Their true character and worth will then be manifested and recognized. At the present time they are princes in disguise.

Christ will bring deliverance from injustice, oppression and war. He will bring about conditions of universal quietness, assurance and prosperity. There will be no sickness, no higher criticism, and no false religions. Such things will not be tolerated. Sin will be judged, instantly, and duly punished. This will then be a restful, singing earth.

It is the purpose of God that the promises and prophecies of the Bible shall be translated into practice. Spiritually minded people know how to plead the promises; they need to make the prophecies subjects of earnest prayer also. They reveal God's program for the future, and intelligent prayer must have that program in mind. The aged Apostle John is an

"St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism liniment which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. SAYS ACID STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION

Excess of hydrochloric acid sours the food and forms gases.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and causes food fermentation. Thus, everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflame the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy lump in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescent and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

example for us. He said, "Even so, come, Lord Jesus." Aggressive Christian service is to be associated with prayer, for in the moral realm God expects intelligent co-operation from His children, for the accomplishment of His great purposes. Those who hold this truth sanely, are in the front ranks in evangelistic and missionary work today.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glasses of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning inside bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nervous wrecks," "rundowns," "brain fags" and pessimists we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked people everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headache, biliousness, nasty breath, rheumatism, colds; and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and are who are constipated very often, and are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance awaiting those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels do.

Charges Effort Being Made to Kill Relief

Washington, March 9.—Charges that members of the house ways and means committee were "endeavoring to kill bonus legislation by delay" were made today by Chairman Fordney when the committee resumed hearings on soldier relief legislation. "I am ready to begin business now," the chairman said, when members suggested hearings be postponed until after the legislative committee of the American Legion has met on March 22 to further consider soldier relief plans. "I don't want to crowd this measure, but we know the attitude of former service men," the chairman continued. "Every officer who had good pay doesn't want a bonus. The private who suffered financial losses are overwhelmingly in favor of some relief plan."

Edwards to Address Camels at Banquet

Milwaukee, Wis., March 9.—Governor Edwards of New Jersey today advised the headquarters of the Order of Camels here of his acceptance of an invitation to participate in the organization banquet of the order in New York City March 3. More than 2,500 men are expected to attend the function when other speakers in addition to Governor Edwards will discuss the principles of the order and announce its plans in the forthcoming fight for personal liberty and the repeal of the 18th amendment on prohibition. In his letter of acceptance Governor Edwards declared it was his intention to carry the battle to the democratic national convention.

Moscow, March 7.—All co-operative societies through which Soviet Russia will do business with the outside world will be represented on the commission appointed to go to London by Vladimir Kinchoul, first secretary of the Workers' Co-operative Organization. He played a part in the revolution of 1905 and spent twelve years in exile in Siberia.

Noted "Fire Bug" is Under Arrest in West

Quincy, Ill., March 9.—Word was received here today of the arrest in Denver, Colo., of Samuel Darr, nationally known as a "fire bug," on an old charge of arson. He was arrested here nine years ago on the same charge along with two others, one of whom, Harvey Six, of Springfield, Ill., admitted to existence of a "National Arson Syndicate," organized for the purpose of beating insurance companies. Operations in this section included the burning of a large and expensive country residence near here and the Aldine Hotel at Peoria.

NAVY'S FAILURE TO GET IN FRAY EARLY ATTACKED

Washington, March 9.—Rear Admiral Sims today told the senate committee investigating the navy's conduct of the war that the failure of the navy department to act promptly on recommendations to place the country's entire naval resources at the disposal of the allies within six months after the United States entered the war prolonged the struggle for at least four months. He added that it also unnecessarily jeopardized the outcome. Declaring that 3,000 lives were lost and $100,000,000 spent every day of the war, the Admiral said the conclusions from his statement were obvious. Admiral Sims said his criticisms were directed at the navy's work in 1917 and "had nothing to do with the magnificent way the navy functioned in 1918 after it really got into the war."

The navy, he said, was not properly prepared in April, 1917, and the administrative machinery was cumbersome and inefficient. He denied that his statements constituted "an attack" on any one and characterized as "ridiculous" statements that he was attacking civilian control of the navy department which, he said, was essential. "I am at the end of my career and have nothing to gain and all to lose," said Admiral Sims. He wished to be set right in the eyes of the country and to refute widespread criticisms that he was "throwing mud at the navy" Admiral Sims declared.
